

In these times of economic uncertainty, organizations are being asked to do more with less. All departments are expected to deliver more efficient performance while keeping tight budgets in check.

Like all business solutions, our SAGE ACCPAC synergistic suite and services, will empower and transform your organization to a more optimized Business Environment.

Why? Because our mandate is to help you uncover hidden savings you may not have known and could have potentially re-invested back to your business to generate better profit margins. We want to help you achieve your business goals this year.

The Sage Accpac Extended Enterprise Suite integrates the best ERP application on the market, Sage Accpac ERP, and the most powerful BUSINESS application, Sage ACCPAC, in one completely solution.

Sage Accpac Extended Enterprise Suite - award-winning Business Management software - helps your organization work more productively, find more customers and keep them happier, and compete better in today's global marketplace. At its core are best-in-class solutions for the management of your accounting, operations, and customer relationships.

The financial modules of Sage Accpac Extended Enterprise Suite are powerful tools to help you streamline time-consuming accounting processes and manage your business' complex finances to comply with a myriad of regulations and ensure the business is performing optimally. The operational modules enhance the inventory-handling and order fulfillment processes, and tie together your supply chain so your business delivers every time, on time.

Grant

SPRING Singapore offers a support of 50%-70% of the qualifying costs if the assistance scheme is applicable to your company's project, subjected to approval.

SAGE ACCPAC will assist your organization to your critical business information and decision makings, leading your vision towards potential cost savings and substantial increase in high sales and value added growth.